The Governor in Council is pleased, under section 18 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, to establish, with effect from the 1st April 1908, a Fourth Bench of Honorary Presidency Magistrates at the Esplanade, Fort, with co-ordinate jurisdiction over the whole of the area comprised within the limits of the Town and Island of Bombay.

G. N., H. D., No. 8120-II, dated 25th August 1926 (B. G., Pt. I, p. 1978). S. 21 (1)

Amended by G. N., H. D., No. 8120, dated 2nd May 1927.
Amended by G. N., H. D., No. 8120, dated 14th Sept. 1938.

The following revised rules to regulate the conduct and distribution of business and the practice in the Courts of the Magistrates of the Town and Island of Bombay, which have been made by the Chief Presidency Magistrate with the previous sanction of His Excellency the Governor in Council under section 21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, are hereby published in supersession of the rules published in Government Notification No. 8343, dated the 5th December 1899, as amended by Government Notification No. 1026, dated the 2nd February 1920 :—

Rule 1.—The Presidency Magistrates (except the Honorary Presidency Magistrates) shall ordinarily sit in Courts for the disposal of business from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., and from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The Honorary Presidency Magistrates shall ordinarily sit in Courts for the disposal of business from 8-45 a.m. to 10-30 a.m.

The Presidency Magistrates shall undertake only such business as is made over to them by the general or special order of the Chief Presidency Magistrate :

Provided that the Chief Presidency Magistrate shall not, without the previous sanction of the Governor in Council, make over to any Presidency Magistrate who is also the Registrar of the Presidency Magistrates' Courts any business which necessitates he exercise of powers under section 190 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

Rule 2.—The Chief Presidency Magistrate will ordinarily sit at the Esplanade Police Court and the Presidency Magistrates other than the Chief Presidency Magistrate will ordinarily sit at such Courts as the Chief Presidency Magistrate may direct. In cases of emergency, any Presidency Magistrate may hold his Court at such place and hour as he may consider best suited to the requirements of the public service.

Rule 3.—In the event of any pressure of work occurring in any Court or during the casual or other absence of any Magistrate, the Chief Presidency Magistrate shall arrange for the distribution of business among the Magistrates.

Rule 4.—All applications for process, copies, certificates or otherwise shall ordinarily be made to the Magistrates on their first taking their seats on the Bench in the morning. Applications which are shown to involve urgency may be made at any time during the sitting of the Court. The Magistrates will not undertake to entertain any application of any sort at their private residences.

Rule 5.—Complaints and applications should, as a general rule, be made in writing with the proper stamp affixed. In each complaint the names of the complainants and of the accused parties and also of the witnesses, and the section of the Law alleged to have been infringed should be legibly written, with such particulars of the facts as may be necessary to support the complaint.

Rule 6.—All applications must be presented in person or by Pleader. The Magistrates will not undertake to reply to written communications.

Rule 7.—The following fees shall be levied :—

(a) Copying fees at 5 annas per folio of 90 words or fraction thereof. Prisoners will be charged 2 annas per folio for copies of proceedings, but will be furnished with a copy of the Judgment in cases other than summons cases, free of charge.

(b) Inspection fees rupee one on each application per day.

(c) Translation fees rupee one per folio or any part thereof.

(d) Parties not supplying their own paper for copies will be charged half anna per sheet of foolscap supplied.

Rule 8.—Subject to the control of the Chief Presidency Magistrate, the Magistrates at each Court will divide the work between themselves, and any difference of opinion will be decided by the Chief Presidency Magistrate. As a general rule, Police cases in which accused persons are in custody should be disposed of before others.

Rule 9.—The Magistrates shall submit such forms, records, reports and returns as may be called for by the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

Rule 10.—The Office hours shall be from 10-30 a.m. to 5-30 p.m. The Courts and Office shall be closed on Gazetted Government Holidays; but the Chief Presidency Magistrate will arrange for the despatch of urgent business.

Rule 11.—If in any case there exist special circumstances which in the opinion of any party concerned or interested in such case require a departure from the ordinary procedure prescribed by these rules such party may bring such special circumstances to the notice of the Chief Presidency Magistrate, who shall thereupon make such order in the matter as he shall think fit.

Note.—An authorised petition-writer is attached to each Court for the purpose of writing at a moderate charge applications and petitions for persons requiring his services.

G. N., H. D., No. 6592/2, dated 5th June 1930 (B. G., Pt. I, p. 1484). S. 21 (1)

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 21 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), and in supersession of the rules published under Government Notification in the Judicial Department No. 2536, dated the 19th May 1904, the Chief Presidency Magistrate, Bombay, with the previous sanction of the Governor in Council has made the following rules for the guidance of Benches of Honorary Presidency Magistrates for the area comprised within the limits of the Town and Island of Bombay :—

(1) The Honorary Presidency Magistrates shall undertake only such business as is made over to them under the general or special order of the Chief Presidency Magistrate.

(2) Courts of Honorary Presidency Magistrates shall be constituted in such place or places within the Town and Island of Bombay as may, from time to time, be appointed for this purpose by the Chief Presidency Magistrate with the sanction of Government ; the services of individual Honorary Presidency Magistrates shall from time to time be assigned by the Chief Presidency Magistrate to the Bench of one or more of such Courts.

(3) Not less than ten days before the end of each month, the Honorary Presidency Magistrates whose services have been assigned to any such Court shall arrange the order in which and the days on which the sections of each Bench shall sit during the following month. The arrangement so made shall forthwith be submitted to the Chief Presidency Magistrate for his approval ; and shall hold good for that month unless the Chief Presidency Magistrate communicates his disapproval before the beginning of the month. If the Honorary Presidency Magistrates whose services have been assigned to any such Court either fail to make such arrangement, or make one which is disapproved by the Chief Presidency Magistrate, the Chief Presidency Magistrate shall himself make an arrangement as aforesaid. Such arrangement shall be communicated by him to the Honorary Presidency Magistrates concerned and shall hold good for the month for which it is made.

(4) Except on Sundays and close Holidays, one section of each Bench shall hold a sitting every day from the hour of 8-45 a.m. until such time as an adjournment may be voted.

(5) The Chief Presidency Magistrate, or any salaried Presidency Magistrate, may, if he so desires, sit in any Honorary Presidency Magistrate's Court, as a member of the Bench.

(6) In order to form a quorum, there shall be present at least two Magistrates from the beginning to the end of a trial or inquiry as members of the Bench :

Provided that if a salaried Presidency Magistrate or an Honorary Presidency Magistrate, empowered to sit singly be present throughout a trial or inquiry, the case may be proceeded with to its conclusion, notwithstanding that there is no quorum present throughout the proceedings.

(7) The Chief Presidency Magistrate shall, if present, officiate as Chairman of the Bench. In his absence, the senior salaried Presidency Magistrate (if any is present) shall officiate as Chairman of the Bench. In the absence of the Chief Presidency Magistrate or any salaried Presidency Magistrate, the Bench shall elect a Chairman from among the Honorary Presidency Magistrates present.

(8) The Chairman shall conduct the proceedings of the Court, but every member of the Bench shall have a voice in the determination of all points arising in any case before the Bench and in the finding and sentence. When opinions are divided, the decision of the majority shall prevail ; and when the Bench is equally divided, the Chairman shall have a second or casting vote.

(9) The Chairman of a Bench shall ordinarily record the evidence (when necessary) and the judgment and sentence of the Court ; but such duty may, with the Chairman's consent, be performed by any one of his colleagues, or at his dictation, by the Judicial Clerk of the Court. When the duty is performed by the Judicial Clerk of the Court, each record of judgment or sentence shall be signed by the Chairman of the Bench.

(10) If the members of the Bench differ in opinion, any dissentient member may write a separate judgment which shall form part of the record.

(11) Notwithstanding any arrangement made under rule 3, any quorum that may have heard part of a case which stands adjourned at the rising of the Court, shall proceed with such case till the conclusion of the trial or inquiry, as the case may be, at sittings held either from day to day, or if the case stands adjourned for more than one day, then on the days to which it stands adjourned. In such case, the Chief Presidency Magistrate or the senior salaried Presidency Magistrate may, so long as he deems it necessary, set aside or vary any arrangement made under rule 3.

(12) Where the hearing of any case has been commenced by a Bench, no Magistrate, who was not present on the Bench from the commencement of the proceedings shall take any part therein.

Amended by G. N., H. D., No. 8874/3/6, dated 3rd January 1939.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (Act V of 1898), the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the manner in which warrants for the levy of fines issued under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of the said section, are to be executed and for the summary determination of any claims made by any person other than the offender in respect of any property attached in execution of such warrants :—

RULES.

1. A warrant for the levy of a fine issued under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 386 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as the Code), shall be directed to a Police Officer and shall be in Form No. XXXVII of Schedule V to the Code.

2. The authority issuing the warrant shall specify a time for the sale of the attached property and for the return of the warrant. The time specified for the sale shall not be less than two months from the date of the issue of the warrant.

3. (1) The attachment of moveable property belonging to the offender shall be made by seizure :

Provided that, where, in addition to or in lieu of seizure, the Police officer considers that either or both of the methods referred to in clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (3) of section 88 of the Code, should be adopted, he shall obtain an order to that effect from the Court issuing the warrant.

(2) When the method referred to in clause (b) of sub-section (3) of section 88 of the Code is adopted and a receiver is appointed, the Court may confer on the Receiver all or any of the powers which may be conferred on a Receiver appointed by a Civil Court under Order XL, Civil Procedure Code, and his duties, and liabilities shall be the same as the duties and liabilities of a Receiver so appointed.

3A. Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the offender in moveable property belonging to him and another as co-owners, the attachment shall be made after obtaining an order to that effect from the Court issuing the warrant, by a notice to the offender prohibiting him from transferring the share or interest or charging it in any way.

4. Before making the attachment, the Police officer shall deliver or tender a copy of the warrant to the offender or in his absence to any adult member of his family. If the offender is in jail, a copy of the warrant shall also be sent to the offender through the Jailor. If a copy cannot be so delivered or tendered, the Police officer shall affix a copy of the warrant at some conspicuous place where the property to be attached is found ; and if the property is situated in a village, the fact of attachment should be proclaimed by beat of drum. After making the attachment the Police officer shall, in like manner, deliver, tender or affix, as the case may be, an inventory of the property attached.

5. If no claim is preferred to any property attached, within one month from the date of the attachment, by any person other than the offender, the Police officer executing the warrant shall have power to sell, within the time mentioned in the warrant and without previous reference to the Court issuing the warrant, the property or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the amount to be levied :

Provided that, if the property attached consists of livestock or is subject to speedy and natural decay, or if in the interest of the owner the Court issuing the warrant orders its immediate sale, the Police officer may sell it at once, but the proceeds of the sale shall not be appropriated towards the fine until the expiration of one month from the date of the attachment, and until any claim preferred under rule 6 has been disposed of :

Provided further that where any property is attached under rule 3A it shall not be sold without obtaining an order to that effect from the Court issuing the warrant ; and where two or more persons, of whom one is a co-owner, respectively offer the same sum for such property it shall be deemed to be the bid of the co-owner.

6. If any claim is preferred to any property attached under rule 3 within one month from the date of such attachment, by any person other than the offender, on the ground that the claimant has an interest in such property and that such interest is not liable to attachment, the claim shall be enquired into and disposed of as provided in rules 7 to 10 ; and the Police officer to whom the warrant is directed shall be directed to stay the sale of the property attached until further orders :

Provided that any claim preferred within the period allowed by this rule may, in the event of the death of the claimant, be continued by his legal representative.

7. Claims may be preferred under rule 6 in the Court by which the warrant is issued or if the claim relates to property attached under a warrant endorsed by a District Magistrate or the Chief Presidency Magistrate under section 387 of the Code, in the Court of such Magistrate.

8. (1) Every claim shall be enquired into and disposed of by the Court in which it is preferred :

Provided that, if it is preferred in the Court of a Sessions or Additional or Assistant Sessions Judge or a District Magistrate or the Chief Presidency Magistrate such Judge or Magistrate may transfer it for enquiry and disposal to any Magistrate of the first or second class or to any Presidency Magistrate, as the case may be, subordinate to him.

(2) Before any claim is enquired into under sub-rule (1), the Court may, in its discretion, require the claimant to deposit in Court a sum of money not exceeding ten per cent. of the value of the property attached or Rs. 10 whichever may be greater.

If the claimant fails to deposit the sum so required, the Court shall reject the claim.

If the claim is found by the Court to be vexatious or frivolous, the Court shall order the deposit to be forfeited to the State Government.

If the deposit is not so forfeited it shall be returned to the claimant as soon as may be practicable after the Court has recorded its decision under rule 10.

9. Notice of any claim preferred under rule 6 or of any objection thereto shall be served on the offender or in his absence, on any adult member of his family. If acceptance of such notice be refused notice may be dispensed with or may be affixed to the residence of the offender or member of his family.

10. The enquiry shall be summary. An adult member of the offender's family or such other person as the Court in its discretion may permit may adduce evidence on behalf of the offender relevant to the claim or objection which may have been preferred. The Court shall record its decision on the claim with the reasons therefor. The decision shall forthwith be communicated to the Police officer executing the warrant who shall dispose of the property in accordance with such decision.

11. Any person whose claim has been disallowed in whole or in part by a decision under rule 10 may, within a period of one year from the date of such decision, institute a suit to establish any right which he claims in respect of the property in dispute, but subject to the result of such suit, if any, the decision shall be conclusive.

11A. Where any property, attached under rule 3A, is sold the Court issuing the warrant may make an order vesting such property in the purchaser; and such property shall vest accordingly.

12. The Police officer executing the warrant shall, as soon as possible after the sale, produce the sale-proceeds before the Court issuing the warrant or if the property was sold under a warrant endorsed by a District Magistrate or the Chief Presidency Magistrate under section 387 of the Code, in the Court of such Magistrate.

13. Subject to the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 386 of the Code and subject also to section 70 of the Indian Penal Code, if, at any time subsequent to the return of the warrant, the fine, or any part thereof, remains unpaid, and the Court has reasonable ground for believing that the offender has any moveable property, it may issue a fresh warrant for the attachment and sale of such property in accordance with the Code and these rules.

14. The Police officer empowered under these rules shall not be inferior in rank to a Sub-Inspector of Police or Head Constable, when the estimated value of the property to be attached exceeds Rs. 100.

S. 565 (3) G. N., H. D., No. 3702/2, dated 25th February 1931 (B. G., Pt. I, p. 626).

Amended by G. N., H. D., No. 3702/2-II, dated 11th September 1933.

In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (3) of section 565 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898), and in supersession of the rules published in Government Notification in the Judicial Department, No. 1040, dated the 9th February 1900, the Governor in Council is pleased to make the following rules to carry out the provisions of the said section relating to the notification of residence or change of or absence from residence by released convicts :—

1. When a Court or Magistrate makes an order under section 565 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (hereinafter referred to as " the Code "), that the sentenced person's residence and any change of or absence from such residence after his release shall be notified, such Court or Magistrate shall inform the Superintendent of the Prison in which the convict is or is to be confined by attaching a copy of such order to the Warrant issued under section 383 of the Code. The Superintendent of Police of the district wherein the offence for which the offender is convicted was committed shall also be informed of the order passed by such Court or Magistrate.

2. * * * * *

3. On the release of the convict in accordance with the rules for release of prisoners made by the State Government under clause (t) of section 60 of the Indian Prisons Act, 1894, the convict shall be taken by a police officer authorised in this behalf in the City of Bombay by the Commissioner of Police and elsewhere by the District Superintendent of Police to the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station at the Headquarters of the district. The Officer-in-Charge of that Police Station shall thereupon produce the convict before a magistrate authorised by the District Magistrate in this behalf. The Magistrate shall question the convict regarding his intended place of residence and explain to the convict the instructions which the said convict is bound to observe as well as the penalties attached to any infringement thereof. After satisfying himself that the convict understands the instructions, the magistrate shall give the convict a copy of the instructions (Form " A " appended) duly filled in, obtain the convict's signature or thumb impression to a duplicate copy thereof and deliver the duplicate copy to the said Police Officer. The convict shall then be at liberty to proceed to his intended place of residence.

4. The duplicate copy of the instructions shall be at once forwarded by the Police Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station at Headquarters to the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the convict on release has notified his intention to reside, with an intimation of the time and date of the convict's release.

5. The Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the ex-convict takes up his residence shall note, on the duplicate Form A as well as on the ex-convict's copy of the form, the time and date on which the ex-convict reports his arrival at the Police Station. The duplicate Form A shall be retained on the record of the Police Station and thereafter the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the ex-convict resides shall enter in Form A, both in his own copy and that in the possession of the ex-convict, all temporary periods of absence notified by the ex-convict before the latter's departure on such journeys.

6. Every person against whom an order has been made under section 565 of the Code shall report his residence and any change of or absence for a period longer than 24 hours from such residence after his release to the authorities in the manner and within the time prescribed in the instructions contained in Form A appended to these rules.

7. If the ex-convict notifies a permanent change of residence, the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station shall enter on the Form A in the possession of the ex-convict as well as on the duplicate copy of his own record the time and date of the ex-convict's departure as notified by him and shall then forward the duplicate Form A to the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction the ex-convict has notified his intention to take up his new residence.

8. In these rules in their relation to the City of Bombay for the words "the Superintendent of Police of the district" and "the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station at the Headquarters of the district" the words "the Deputy Commissioner of Police, Crime" shall be substituted.

FORM "A".

To

Whereas an order has been made by the $\frac{\text{Court of}}{\text{Magistrate}}$, under section 565 (1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, at the time of passing sentence on you, that you shall notify your residence and any change of or absence from such residence for a term of from the date of your release, and whereas you have notified your desire to reside in the $\frac{\text{Village of}}{\text{Town}}$ Police Station district you are hereby directed to observe the following instructions :—

1. Within 48 hours of your arrival at your residence you must report yourself with this form, to the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction your village is situated, viz. Police Station. The said Police Officer will endorse on this form that you have given the requisite notification about taking up your residence.

2. You shall not absent yourself from your place of residence for a period longer than 24 consecutive hours without previously notifying the fact to the Officer-in-Charge of the said Police Station in the manner provided in the following rule.

3. If you desire to remain absent from your residence for a period longer than 24 consecutive hours, you must report yourself, with this Form, to the Officer-in-Charge of the said Police Station and notify to him the place or places you will visit, and the period for which you will be absent. The said Police Officer will endorse on this form that you have notified, as required, your intention to be absent. You must not remain absent beyond the period you have notified, and, on your return, you must again report yourself within 48 hours to the Officer-in-Charge of the said Police Station and obtain his endorsement on this Form.

Note.—When the period of absence does not exceed one week the Village Police Patil in the Presidency proper is authorised to perform the functions of the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station under this Rule.

4. Whenever you are absent from your place of residence for a period exceeding 24 consecutive hours, you must take this form with you and you must produce it for inspection on demand by any police officer.

5. If you desire to change your residence permanently, you must appear with this Form before the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction you reside and notify to him within a reasonable time before your departure your new place of intended residence, and the date and time of your departure. The said Police Officer will make the necessary endorsement on this Form to show that you have given due notice of your change of permanent residence.

6. On arrival at your new place of residence, you must report yourself to the Officer-in-Charge of the Police Station within whose jurisdiction your new residence is situated within 48 hours of your arrival, and present to him this Form for his inspection and endorsement.

7. You shall be subject to the above rules for a period of years.

8. For any omission on your part to comply with the above rules, you will be liable to simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or to fine which may extend to Rs. 1,000 or both.
